

Building No. 2
Blue Mountain Tavern
105 East Main Street, Weston, Oregon

105 East Main Street
Common name: Blue Mountain Tavern
Date of construction: c. 1895
Style: Italianate
Significance: Primary

Description: Single story brick masonry building of locally manufactured brick, rectangular in plan.

Approximate frontage on Main Street is 34 feet. Facade organized as two narrow shop bays on either side of a central entrance bay. Division of the bays and articulation of the upper facade is typical of several buildings along the street, consisting of strip pilasters, stacked plain string courses, and crowning string course with an intermediate course of cut brick laid in sawtooth fashion. The central bay is marked by a rectangular, straight-topped parapet crest. Display windows and entrance are remodeled, but paired segmental arches remain above the west bay. The west wall, having originally abutted another building, is blind. The east wall is a common wall with the adjoining Reynaud Building.
